

Task language and steps

- Sit behind a table.
- Place the gimmicked cardboard tube upside down on a piece of paper.
- Place a coin next to the gimmicked cardboard tube.
- Ask, 'do you want to see a magic trick?'
- Say, 'I will make this coin disappear'.
- Hold up the other cardboard tube, showing your fingers can pass through it. Say, 'look, the tube is empty'.
- Show your hands are empty.
- Cover the gimmicked cardboard tube with your hand.
- Lift the gimmicked cardboard tube and place it over the coin.
- Say, 'ladies and gentlemen, I will now say the magic word, alakazam! The coin has now disappeared'.
- Slowly move your hands away from the gimmicked cardboard tube. The coin has now vanished. Make sure the audience are able to look into the gimmicked cardboard tube and see the coin is no longer there.
- Say, 'ladies and gentlemen, I will now make the coin reappear'.
- Cover the gimmicked cardboard tube.
- Say the magic word, 'alakazam!'
- Lift the gimmicked cardboard tube and slowly move it to the side. The coin reappears and is back on the table.
- Pick up the coin and ask someone to examine it. Say, 'please, have a look at the coin'.
- Repeat the trick.
- Say, 'thank you for watching my trick'.

Success criteria

- Did the magician perform the trick well?
- Did the magician tell the audience what was happening? E.g., did they say, 'I will make this coin disappear'?
- Give the magician some feedback and advice.
